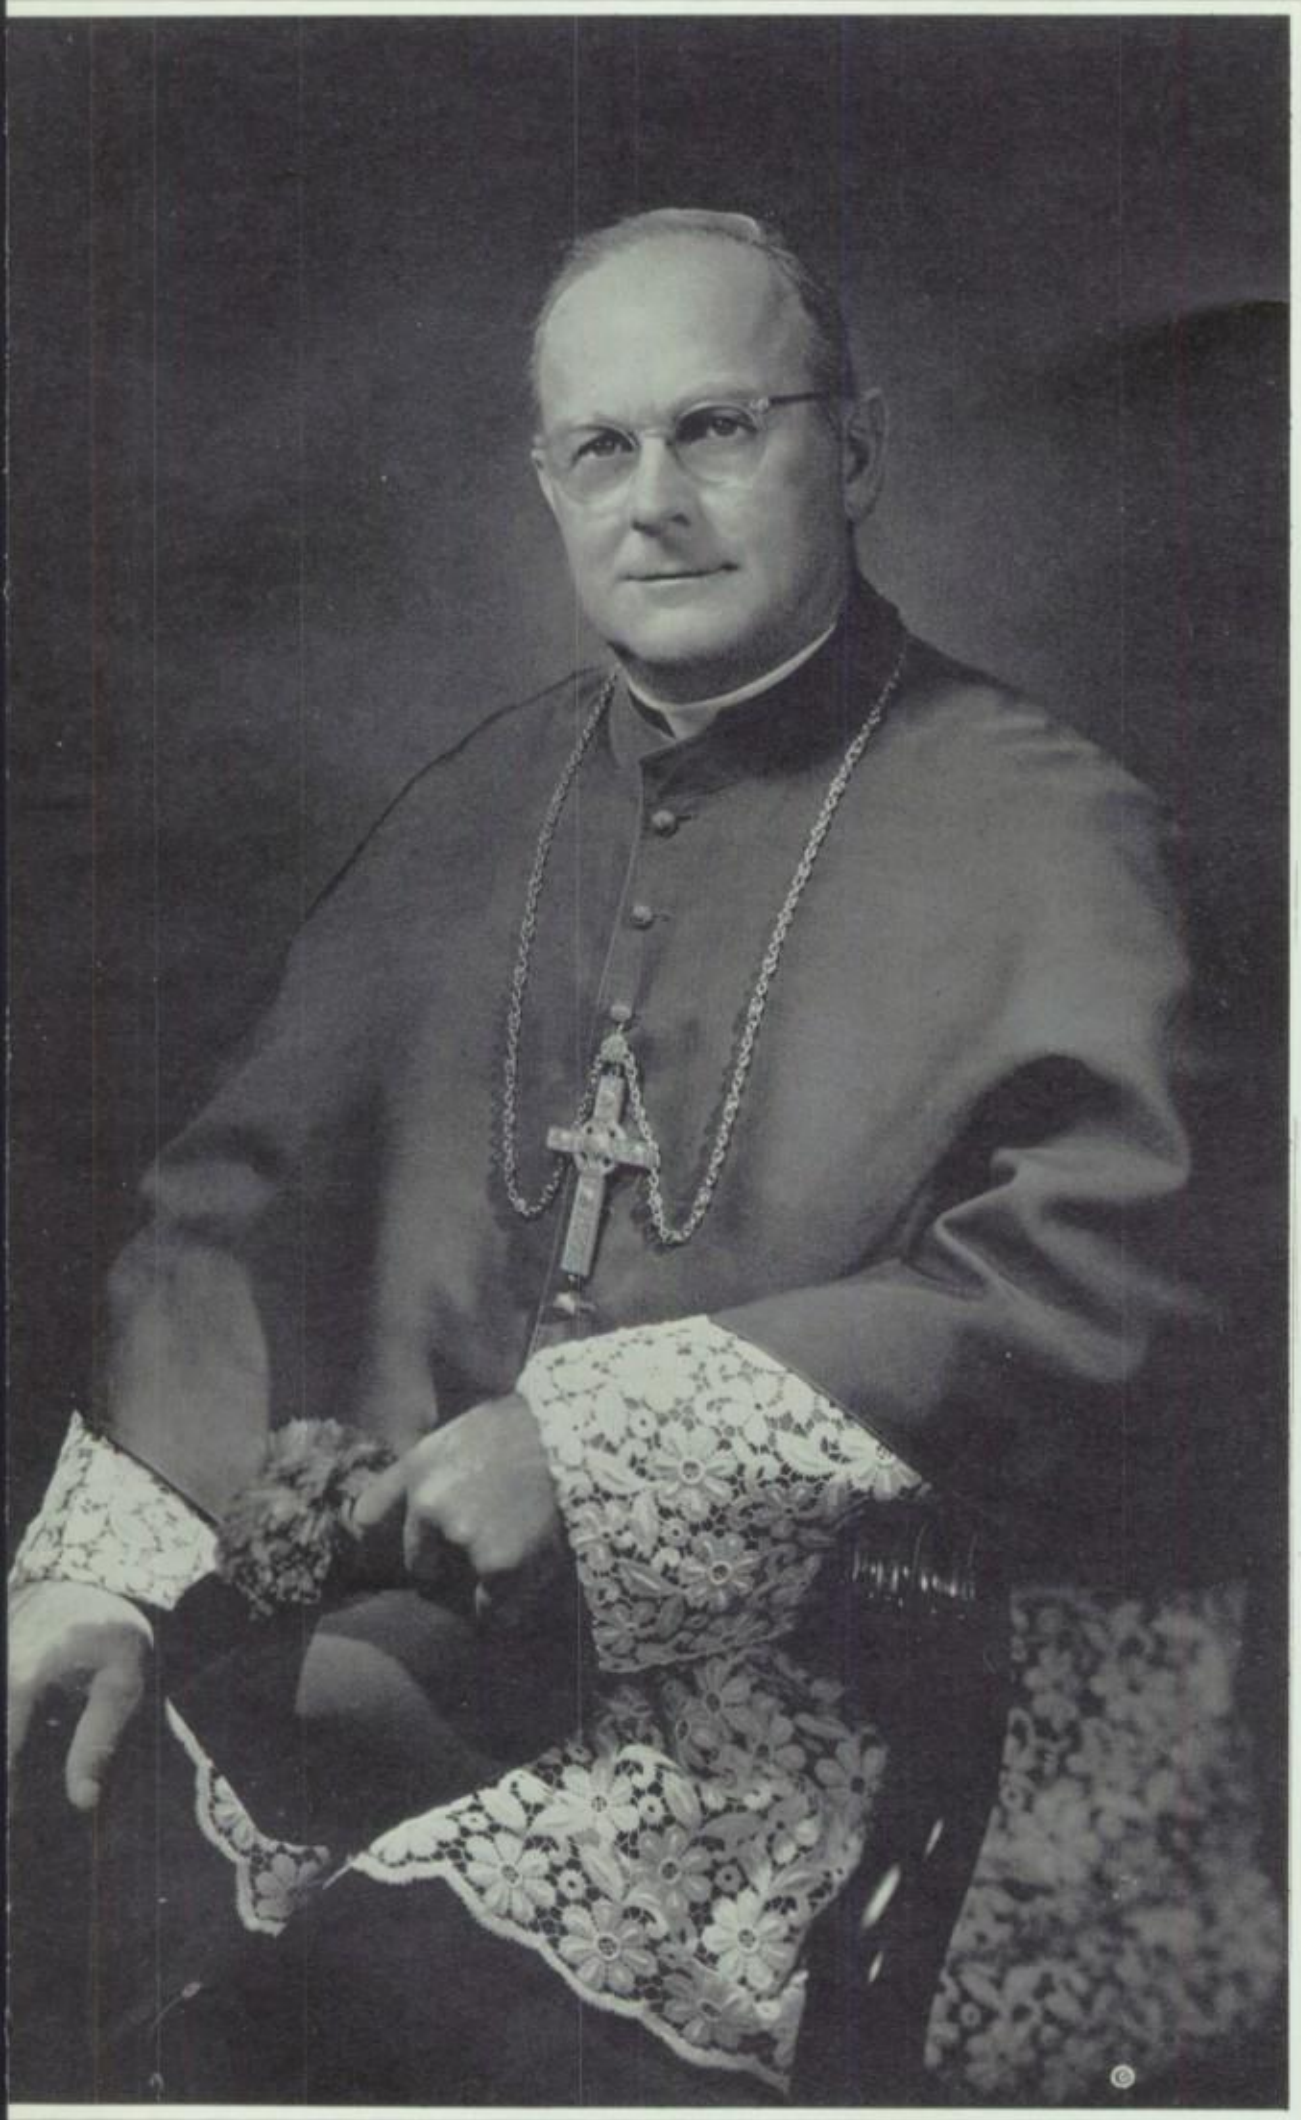
BROTHER THOMAS KEEFE, C.S.C.

Dedication

None of us of the Class of '63 will ever forget Brother's kind understanding and patience, his humility and spiritual perception, his genuine understanding of human problems and his warm sense of humor, whether shown in the privacy of the counseling office, at the teacher's desk in the classroom, or behind the speaker's rostrum at an assembly.

It is with deep gratitude that we dedicate these memories of Coyle to a man who has given them form and meaning—Brother Thomas Keefe, C.S.C. May he and ourselves always be together in the unity of Christ and in happy memory of Coyle.

Brother Thomas enjoys talking with a Coyle grad and father of a Coyle student of today.



MOST REVEREND JAMES L. CONNOLLY, D.D., D. Sc. H.
Bishop of Fall River

MOST REVEREND JAMES J. GERARD,

Faculty

The Brothers of Holy Cross

The first community of teaching Brothers to make a foundation in the United States . . .

Teachers in more than fifty institutions of learning from Massachusetts to California . . .

Combining over a century of teaching experience with the freshness and vitality of the latest in educational methods . . .

Happy in their vocation to mould Christian youth at Coyle.

Introducing The Class of '63

COYLE

Seniors at last! Those three years of looking up to the upperclassmen were finally rewarded. During our final year, though, we didn't have much time to relax in the coveted position. The year was spent plowing through books, filling out college applications or preparing to make a living, and rounding out our personalities with activities, sports, and social life. As time moves on, these luminescent days and their reflections will end, but the reflections they have made upon our minds will never fade. We've made our mark, and it is this mark that will make its impression upon those who will follow us as men of Coyle.

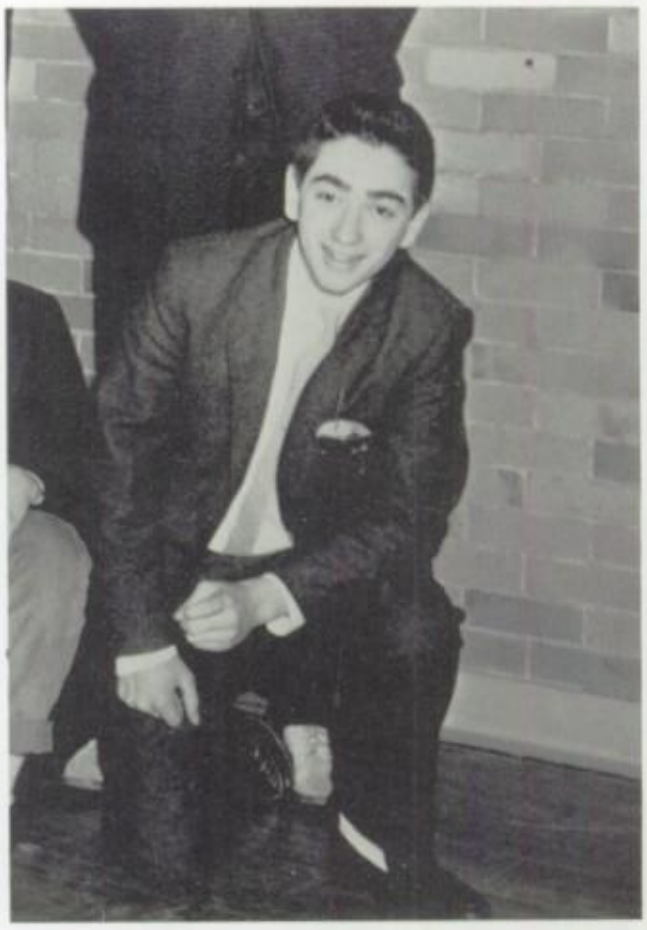
In Memoriam



DENNIS GARLAND, '63

Anyone who knew Denny deeply grieved at his untimely death in April of 1962. We mourned with his parents and friends at the loss of one so young with a full life lying ahead of him. He was the perfect example of a Coyle man—a good student and a fine Christian gentleman. As friends we grieve the loss, but as Christians we can hope that he has already entered into eternal happiness and thereby are happy for him.

What Is High School?

By Jay Waldron, '63

I am in a new World; a signer of last name, middle initial;
Receiver of seat, desk, schedule, and a dream—a freshman.
Being a freshman is a little awesome, but lots of fun.
Best of all, it's exciting, unique—a beginning.

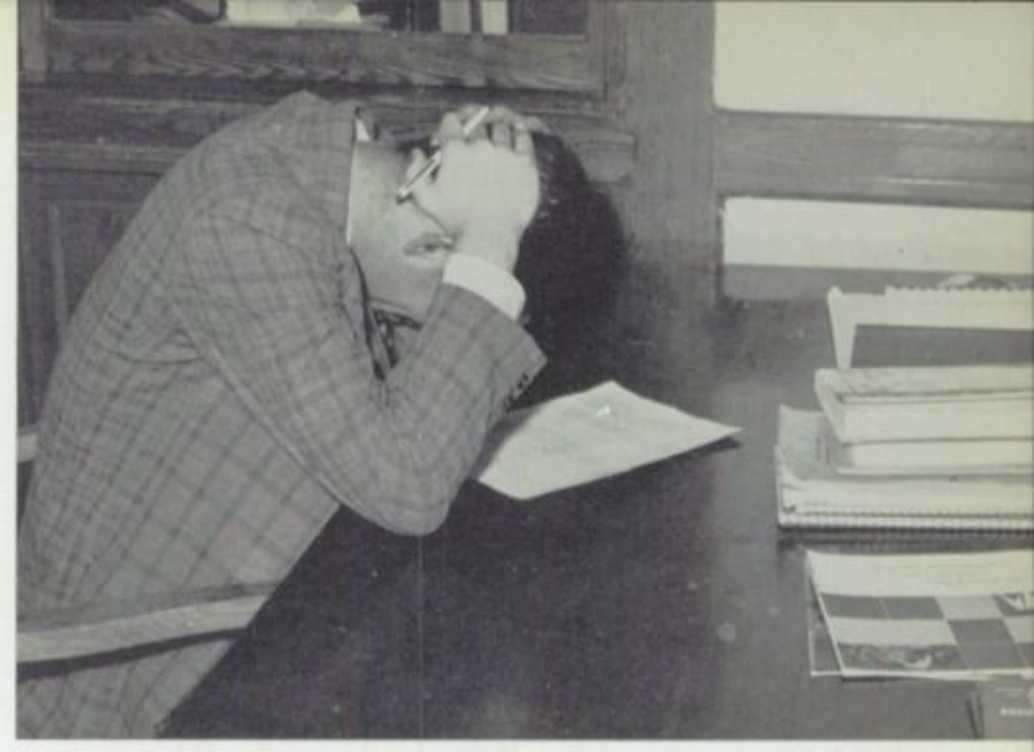
Coyle is:
The sandwich break, touchdown passes, quarterly exams,
Studies, buddies, students' gripes, kids of all types;
Things to do, a point of view—

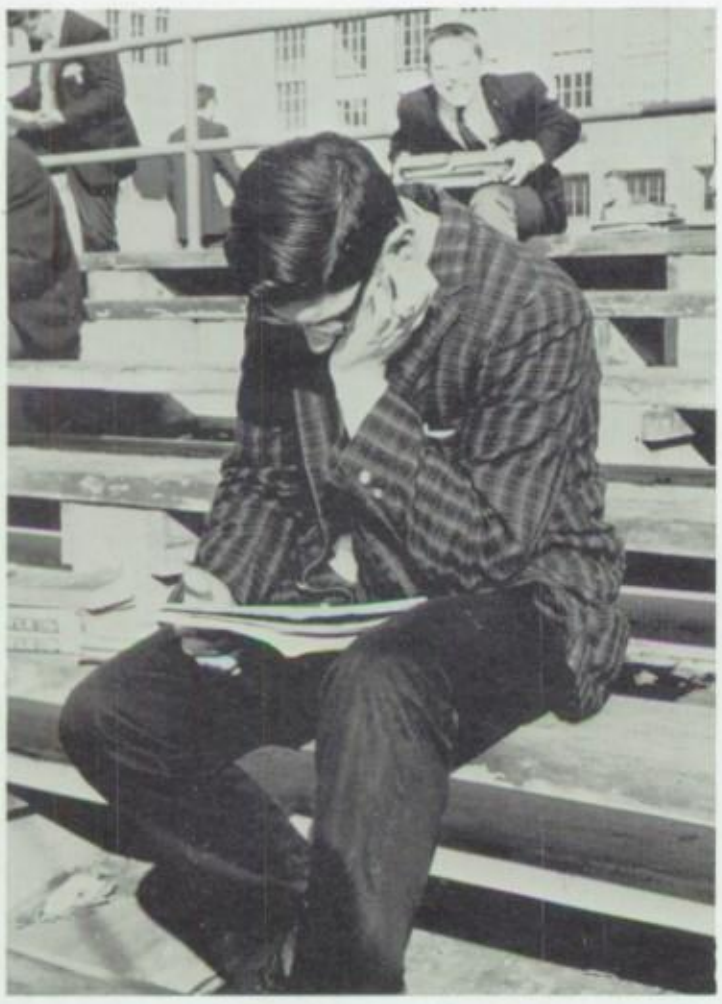
Brothers, books, labs, essay questions;
Fill in the blanks, fun and pranks,
English themes, dramatic scenes, football teams, impossible schemes . . .

. . . Hard work
— homework —
— slow work —
— no work —

Listening, talking, thinking, walking, seeing, being;
THIS is high school, this and more . . .
High school perhaps is a forge of maturity.

Why of all books must textbooks be so ugly?
Books should be beautiful.
The act of learning should be beautiful;
But studying is a duel between duty and pleasure,
A test of whether you're still juvenile or finally matured.
Studying is worrying, it's a bent back and sore eyes.
It's loneliness, it's humility, it's irritation, it's patience, it's a grind.
Usually it's prolonged procrastination, followed by utter despair.





But sometimes, just sometimes studying is proximate to joy when your labor bears fruit and understanding occurs.
A completion of a difficult assignment leaves one with an unequalled sense of accomplishment, that special sense of achievement.

A cloud covers one. I am depressed.
Then the pendulum swings
My joy is repossessed.
But what is high school really?
Is it a matter of quest?
Perhaps it is! A searching for a purpose for the cloak of maturity.

The Season in Review

The past year's football season proved to be a rough one for the '62-'63 edition of the Warriors. The team found the path to victory very steep and narrow, as it could only compile a 2 and 6 record.

September 23rd, the Burnsmen opened their campaign with a disappointing loss to the highly-touted Spartons of Bishop Stang; dropping the encounter by a 25-6 margin. The second Sunday game in a row found the Warriors playing a much better game, only to lose out in the waning moments as a result of a freak play. The loss of the first two games put the team in a state of mind which was eventually to affect their play throughout the rest of the season.

On October 13th, the Attleboro Blue Bombadiers foiled the attempt of the Warriors to bring home their first victory of the season. The score belies the closeness of the game, however, as the team fought doggedly they could still not shake the jinx.

The second half of the Attleboro-No. Attleboro tandem came to town and dealt the home forces a mighty blow in swamping the Burnsmen 42-6. It looked as though an upset was in progress, however, as the Rocketeers were held completely in check for most of the first half. North's might could not be contained as their depth caught up to the fired-up Warriors and gradually overcame our inexperienced eleven.

The Blue and Gold finally broke into the win column with a resounding 42-0 shellacking of the New Bedford Vocational footballers. The Green and White were counting at every turn and they couldn't stop Coyle's rampaging backs and bulldozing linemen.

It was a day fit only for ducks as the Vikings lost a heartbreaker to Fairhaven. A last period score checkmated three previous ones. A dry day most certainly would have given the Warriors a victory as the conditions that day were absolutely unplayable.

A well-drilled Durfee High Squad came to town obviously intent upon reconciliating their loss of the previous year. Unfortunately the Blue and Gold could not put forth a team of equal caliber and again they succumbed to defeat, 34-14.

Turkey Day found the fired-up Warriors prepared to compensate for a mediocre season. This was the last game for the Warrior Seniors: George Wilcox, Bob Raposa, Mike DePaola, Bob Vicino, Bill Veno, John Doyle, Mike Carroll, Rich Santos, Bill Asack and John Ruggiero. The Taunton High forces were bested at every turn in the well-played game. It was Coyle's game all the way, the Herringtowners were never ahead. Coach Burns, Coach Lanagan and Coach Borsari have a lot to look forward to as many underclassmen saw game action and showed good promise for the coming years.

Record Season

The '62-'63 edition of Coyle High Basketball compiled one of the finest records in the history of the school. Their fine 21-4 season was due largely to the hard work of a great bunch of guys who dedicated themselves to becoming a great team.

The Warriors started their season early in December with an impressive home court win over Prevost of Fall River. Getting off on the right foot, the Coyle quintet then journeyed to Rhode Island to compete in the La Salle Tournament in Providence. Coyle brought home the first place trophy after defeating De La Salle in the finals. Jeff Mansfield was named to the all star team and Jim Bradshaw was voted most valuable player.

The Warriors moved on in pre-season play by defeating Plymouth, and then Brockton which had been highly regarded in early season polls.

Undefeated now in five starts, the Warriors were prepping for their first league encounter when Ron Richard, the starting center and big rebounder was lost as the result of a broken ankle suffered during practice. Despite this misfortune, the team refused to call it quits. They went right on to successive wins over intra-city rival Taunton, North Attleboro, and Attleboro.

The Warriors put on their travelling clothes for an away game with Durfee, dubbed by many as the team to beat in Bristol County. The loss of Richard was felt in this hard-fought game and Durfee used its height to full advantage, checking the Coyle winning streak and beating the Blue and Gold 56 to 38.

Bishop Stang, newcomer to Bristol County Basketball, gave Coyle their biggest scare of the year, putting up a brilliant fight before succumbing 67 to 65. The Coylemen kept their poise and claimed the victory by virtue of a Bob Tallman jump shot with four seconds left.

Coyle next set down Fairhaven, Voke, Taunton, and North Attleboro in that order, gaining more recognition and improving with every game.

The next win meant qualifying for the Tech Tourney but Coyle suffered a loss to a fired-up Attleboro five that couldn't do anything wrong. The day was brightened, however, by the return of Richard to the lineup after five weeks absence.

The following Tuesday saw 600 Coyle fans on hand to watch their team come into its own with a well earned win over first place Durfee. The team was never better and the well balanced offense saw four of the five starters in double figures. This was Coyle's finest hour!

The rest of the season proved to be smooth sailing as Coyle went on to take the runner-up spot in the County.

In post season play, the Warriors accepted an invitation to the New England Catholic Tourney held at Lawrence, Mass. The Warriors defeated old rival Matignon of Cambridge in their opening thriller. Cardinal Spellman of Brockton next proved easy prey for the Blue and Gold and the team moved into the finals. St. John's of Shrewsbury proved to be the fly in the applesauce as they handed the Warriors a one point defeat in a game that was hard fought right down to the final buzzer. But the Warriors brought home the second place trophy and Jeff Mansfield again made the all star team.

The Warriors made their bid in the Tech Tourney, opening with a sound victory over Archbishop Williams of Braintree. Coyle next drew Malden as its quarter-final opponent. Malden opened up a big lead in the second quarter and held it throughout the third but Coyle rallied in the fourth and closed the gap to two with less than a minute remaining. Time out was taken and the play was set up for one last shot. The pass went to Richie Miles and the sharp-shooting Junior missed his target, Malden grabbed the rebound, and iced the game with a last second layup, ending Coyle's bid for the Tourney Crown. It was indeed a fine season for the basketball Warriors.
